Come to Hoeft's Saturday for bargains.

Attorney James M. Collins, wife and children attended the Lexington Fair yesterday.

Mr. James A. Scudder of Terra Haute Ind., accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Kenady of Carlisle, were visiting friends and relatives in this city yesterday. Half a century ago Mr. Scudder and the writer were typists in the old Mayeville Bagle office in Court street, together with Major Puse, Mrs. Williams, John Sparks, George Schiltz, John Cockrell, and Martin Smith, for many of whom have passed away. Mr. Scudder is now a retired business man, having accumulated a competency.

Recaptured

John Brady, colored, who was serving a ninety days jail sentence for mistreatment of his parents, and who made his escape several weeks ago from the guard, was captured by Officer Omer Flier at Vanceburg yesterday and returned to his old quarters in the county jail here. When Brady is arraigned before Judge Rice and he applies his rule of three, which means about 270 days, John will be sorry that he made his break for liberty.

GENERAL MARSHALL

Distinguished Soldier and Engineer
Visiting His Native Heath

General William Louis Marshall arrived yesterday for a brief visit with relatives in the county.

The General began his military career as Aid on the Staff of his relative, General Green Clay Smith, in 1862, but soon after resigned to take an appointment at the military academy of West Point secured through the influence of Hon. W. H. Wadsworth of this city, who at the time represented this district in the National Congress.

The General is a native of this county, born at "Walnut Grove" in 1846, entered Kenyon College, Ohio, 1860.

He graduated at West Point in 1864 in a class of fifty-four members, standing No. 7. He was commissioned Brevet Second Lieutenant of Engineers same date.

He served as Professor in the Academy for a time and then put in charge of the Colorado Section of the United States Geological and Geological Explorations and Surveys, discovering the "Marshall Pass" across the main ridge of the Rocky Mountains. Also the gold placers in Marshall Basin in Southwestern Colorado.

He served as Engineer on the improvement of the Tennessee river and also as Engineer in charge of the improvement of the Mississippi river from 1881 to 1884. He was considered one of the best officers in the Engineer service.

Later in his career one of the chief achievements of General Marshall was the despoiling of New York Harbor. He is now retired as Chief of Engineer.

His wife was Miss Lizzy Hill Colquitt, daughter of Senator A. H. Colquitt of Georgia, to whom he was married in 1886. With all his accomplishments General Marshall is a remarkably modest, unassuming gentleman.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Club this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Miss Yancey's office.

The alarm of fire last afternoon about 3:45 was caused by a burning brush pile near the C. & O. Depot. No damage.

The Maysville Club of the Blue Grass League has this week sold its two crack pitchers, Wellman to the St. Louis Browns of the American League, and Bert Grover to the Chattanooga (Fonn.) Club.

He was purchased upon the recommendation of President Navis of the Detroit Tigers. Catcher Glido was purchased from the Frankfort Club of the Bluegrass League several days ago, the two leading the circuit in their respective positions."

WALTER BELL PHISTER

Former Popular Maysville Man
Passes Away at Newburyport, Mass.

Captain C. M. Phister and Miss Amy Phister received telegrams yesterday announcing the death at his beautiful summer home in Newburyport, Mass., of Mr. Walter Bell Phister, aged about 55 years, a native of Maysville and a son of the late Charles Phister and Margaret Hatchias Phister.

The announcement of Walter's death will bring tears of regret to many eyes as he was of such a generous, enthusiastic and bounding personality that to once feel its touch with his genial presence, was always to be impressed with a being of superior bearing and magnetism.

Being born and reared in Maysville and proud that he was a Kentuckian, Walter Bell gloried in his nativity and never neglected an opportunity to speak the last word for his home and its people.

To his aged parents he fairly lavished every comfort and luxury upon them and he made declining years a joy and they each passed away full of years and blessing their noble son who followed the divine injunction to "honor thy father and mother in the days of thy youth."

Some thirty years ago Walter located in Chicago where his energy and great business activity soon gave him a commercial position of trust and wealth. He married Miss Elizabeth Lapsenard Johnson of Newburyport, Mass., a descendant of one of the most honored and affluent families of New England. Their summer home at Newburyport is one of the most historic and beautiful in the old Bay State. Mrs. Phister survives and their two grown children, Lapsenard, a son, and Mary, a daughter.

Mr. Phister had been ill for many months and his death was not unexpected to his family. His funeral and interment will take place this afternoon at Newburyport.

His relatives living in Maysville are: Captain C. M. Phister, an uncle, Mrs. Jane Phister, an aunt and Miss Amy Phister, a cousin.

Some Linen Values

You Can't

Sheeting and Pillow Case Linen

Well known, superior standard makes at the price of just fairly good kinds. Linens that have a measure of quality so good, so thoroughly up to your expectations, you will want to buy a supply for future as well as present needs. Irish Linens

There is no particular reason why Irish Linen should have the preference. There are half a dozen other linen producing sources that are just as good. Yet there is something sturdy and serviceable about Irish Linens that make people want ever-increasing quantities of them year after year. Irish Table Linen by the yard 50c to $3.50. Napkins 60c to $7.50 per dozen. Handkerchief Linen 50c to $1.50 per yard. Linen Suitings 25c to $1.50 per yard.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.

POPULISM, SOCIALISM AND CHAOS.

Mr. Roosevelt's address—which is at once a confession of faith and an order to the Chicago convention—is a farrago of populism, socialism and chaos. Appealing to the discontented, and hoping their numbers may increase, he promises all good things to all men. Let those who have not spoken announce their grievances, and he will redress them. Let those who have spoken bend their energies, and their grievances shall disappear under his leadership. Mr. Roosevelt is running a free lunch counter, and wants folks to step up and help themselves.

He is particularly solicitous for the farmers and the wage earners. And naturally. They count heavily at the ballot box. He wants the farmers to get top prices for their products, and the consumers bottom prices for what passes down their throats. How may this be done? For the present that is Mr. Roosevelt's secret. Elect him President and he will show how.

Trusts should be encouraged, but shackled. His views on that matter are not new. He has announced them in other addresses. They please some of the trusts mightily. As witness the interest of George W. Perkins in Mr. Roosevelt's campaign. Greater love hath no trust than this; that is put up in coin liberally for an anti-trust candidate. Mr. Perkins is an "angel" intirely familiar with his business.

Women and children must be protected in employment as to both hours and wages. A minimum wage must be decreed.

These are among many things suggested by Mr. Roosevelt in an address of great length, and certain to add ginger to the campaign. When he takes the stump he will touch them in his own way, though not likely to make as clear to anybody outside the circle of his worshipers. You must take Mr. Roosevelt on faith, and that sort of faith defined by the little boy as "a belief in things you know ain't so."

The Roosevelt order is very, very large. It calls for years in the execution, which means that in effect Mr. Roosevelt is asking for a job that would require all of his remaining days.

"We stand at Armageddon, and we battle for the Lord." He stands at Chicago, and he battles for Theodore Roosevelt. And battles against the party which made him. Battles against men—Taft, Root, Fairbanks, Lodge, Crane, and many others—who held up his hands in years past and did all they could for him. And while pretending to battle against trusts and bosses, he is accepting trust money for campaign purposes, and the support of men notorious as bosses in their respective communities. The country at the polls will not reward such apostasy and hypocrisy.—Washington Star.

The London Daily Express says: "One thing is clearly emphasized in the course of this melodramatic struggle, namely the shortness of the presidential term. The necessity of going through this turmoil every four years is very harmful not only to the nerves, but to business in America. Eight years lease of power for the president would be a sensible reform."

THE 'ASSISTANT DEMOCRAT.'

Mr. Roosevelt will feed his vanity by carrying his trade of abuse and falsehood over the country.

That he can be elected is not imaginable. His place in this campaign will be that of an assistant Democrat.

Every vote cast for Roosevelt will be half a vote cast for Wilson.

If there is a Republican who is willing to try a tariff-for-revenue-only administration under Democratic auspices, by all means let him vote for the assistant Democrat, Mr. Roosevelt.

But let him be prepared to take the consequences of a business upheaval that will close the mills and send tens of thousands of workmen to the streets begging for bread.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Political Pickings

St. Louis Times: Some one suggests that Roosevelt go into vaudeville. But isn't that where he's been this long while?

St. Louis Republic: Spackling of splitting hairs, what about the split in the Roosevelt party in Georgia?

Atlanta Constitution: If the Colonel should be successful he'll have the bull moose design on the dollar.

Omaha Bee: Lorimer out, Archbald at bat, Hanford in deck and the recall in the hole.

Philadelphia Press: If you don't see what you want in the Bull Moose platform ask for it; they will promptly hand you out a promise of it.

New York World: Somebody is likely to get knocked over the ropes at Armageddon.

Pointed Paragraphs.

In Bull Moose Platform, Says Socialist Leader Debs

In a signed statement published in New York Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist leader, says of the Roosevelt progressive party: "The really progressive planks in the Progressive platform were taken bodily from the Socialist platform, and even the red flag of Socialism was appropriated, or at least imitated by the red bandanna of the Roosevelt followers. So far as the Progressive party itself is concerned, it contains too many diverse and conflicting economic elements, and its platform is too much of a hodge-podge to give it the character and stability of a great national party."

"WONDERFUL POSSIBILITIES"

That is the Opinion of Mr. John L. Shuff, After Visiting the Audubon Well

Dover News

Saturday Mr. John L. Shuff, noted business man and Democratic politician of Cincinnati, stopped off in Dover and while here paid a visit to the wonderful Audubon Artesian Blue Lick well. He had been using the water at his home and was anxious to investigate its source and find out more about it. With Mr. E. R. Hatchings, Dr. Hutchings and this editor he visited the well and looked over the Audubon farm generally and the bathing beach and fishing shore in particular. He appeared not only well pleased but astonished at the "wonderful possibilities" as he expressed it, of the location for a summer resort. Further than this he had little to say for publication, being content with asking for information rather than giving it.

Promoter Hutchings is endeavoring to interest some Cincinnati capitalists in the development of the property by the erection of a hotel and sanatorium and bathing beach on a large scale, and it is hoped that Mr. Shuff's report of local conditions will be of such a nature as will materially aid in making the enterprise a success. Anyhow, before long we will see what we will see.

In the meantime there is no immediate cause for the price of surrounding land to go up to the air.

An Editor's Ill Luck

Editor Stairs of our good old standby, The Dover News, was playing in hard luck this week. The "Express Trust" carried his bundle of papers by Wednesday, and to add to the trouble one entire page of type, ready for the press, was "plaid." An editor who has ever had a whole page "plaid" can imagine that such a calamity is provocation enough to drive a man to drink; hard drink—even Ohio river water or Audubon.

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

Odd, Va.:—"I am enjoying better health than I have for 20 years, and I believe I can safely say now that I am a well woman. I was reared on a farm and had all kinds of heavy work to do which caused the troubles that came on me later. For five years during the Change of Life I was not able to lift a pail of water. I had hemorrhages which would last for weeks and I was not able to sit up in bed. I suffered a great deal with my back and was so nervous I could scarcely sleep at night, and I did not do any housework for three years.

"Now I can do as much work as any woman of my age in the county, thanks to the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARTHA L. HOLLOWAY, Odd, Va.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

ERRORS LOST THE GAME
Riverners Get Seventeen Hits to Thirteen for the Bourbonites, But Lose the Game

Paris walloped Maysville here yesterday afternoon in a dull and long drawn out game by the score of 10 to 8. Both teams had their batting eyes primed for the spheres and hits were freely made, a total of thirty being scored in the game.

While the Riverners made seventeen safe hits yet the Bourbonites won after making only thirteen. Errors by local players were costly and really lost them the game. It was a poor exhibition of ball playing by both clubs.

Mollackamp's batting was the feature. Graver batted for Vance and made a single. The score follows:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
Paris.....2 0 0 0 2 5 0 1 0 13 2
Maysville.....0 4 0 0 3 0 0 1 8 17 4

Two base hits—Mollackamp 2, Langenham, Lako. Sacrifice hits—Chapman, Claver, Kuhlman. Sacrifice fly—Woodruff. Stolen bases—Williams, Chapman 2, Shook, Harrall, Locke. Base on balls—Off Applegate 1, off Vance 2, off Hauer 1, off Sanford 2. Struck out—By Applegate 4, by Vance 7, by Hauer 2, by Sanford 2. Hits—Off Vance, 11 hits, 6 runs in 6 innings; off Applegate, 12 hits, 5 runs in 5 innings. Left on bases—Paris 8, Maysville 8. Double plays—Claver to Carmoy, Wild pitches—Sanford 2. First base on errors—Paris 4, Maysville 2. Time—2:25. Umpire—Patterson.

Housework Drudgery!

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and as Mrs. Briggs and others testify: It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any druggist persuade you that his unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit.

Mrs. BRIGGS, of 229 N. Washington St., Delphos, Ohio, writes: "Having taken your 'Favorite Prescription' for a bad case of intestinal disease and constipation with woman's ill, for which I was almost unable to do anything, I think I am safe in saying that there are no remedies in the world like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Purifying Laxative Tablets.' I am now enjoying the best of health, and thank Dr. Pierce for his wonderful medicines which have done me a world of good."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.
